Six promoted at Armstrong

Bruce E. Cowan, plant manager at Armstrong Furniture, announced this week a number of changes in personnel at the Appomattox plant.

Ron Steinkamp has been named to the position of materials manager, a newly established position.

"With the emphasis necessary on logistical and inventory control, and with the advent of some probable new markets, such as K-Mart, a staff position of total management will best serve the plant needs," said Cowan.

Steinkamp has been with the plant since 1974 in the material management field.

T. Robert Martin has been selected to be plant materials department procurement manager, replacing Larry White. In his new job, he will have overal responsibility for the procurement of all materials and supplies needed at the Appomattox plant. Martin joined the company in June of 1978 as project industrial engineer.

David M. Zimmerman has been named to the newly created position of materials planner. He joined the Appomattox plant as employment manager in 1981.

He will have the responsibility for inventory control and purchasing of numerous items used in the assembly and packing departments.

Bill Francis has accepted a promotion to the newly created position of product engineer designer. He came to Appomattox in November of 1975 as a machine designer.

Greg Blouch has accepted a promotion to the position of product development engineer, replacing Dave Peeples. He joined Armstrong as an industrial engineer in August of 1983.

Jan S. Collins has accepted a promotion to the position of supervisor, manpower and training, replacing Dave Zimmerman. She joined Armstrong in June 1978 as assistant to the employment manager.

Surplus foods will be distributed

The Appomattox County Department of Social Services will distribute surplus butter, cheese and powdered milk on Wednesday, June 20, 1984. The distribution will be held at the Appomattox Depot on Main Street and last from 9:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m.

Mr. Francis Elliott, the Volunteer Surplus Food Coordinator, requested and received an additional fifty-two cases of surplus milk for the residents of Appomattox County.

Surplus food will be given to the recipients of food stamps, medicaid, aid to dependent children, Supplement Security Income and fuel assistance. Also, people with a gross income below 130% of the poverty level will be eligible.

Medicaid and SSI recipients must show their medicaid I.D. Cards to receive the surplus food. Recipients of fuel and ADC will be checked against a masterlist. Food stamp recipients must bring the notice sent with the June food stamps. (A few people did not receive a notice with their June food stamps. They may pick one up at the food stamp office on Thursday, June 14, 1984). People requesting surplus food based on income will be required to sign a form listing all household members and all gross monthly income. Be prepared to supply this information. (See chart below).

Only one allotment of surplus food will be issued to a household. Please bring a bag or box with you.

| Family Size | Monthly Gross Income |
